

Installations World Wide

The installation process is quite important before a playground go to run. The installation will also decide the quality of the finished indoor playground. Thus only when a indoor playground installation has been completed and tested to be qualified, can this project be claimed to be successful. Cheer amusement has own professional and highly skilled installation team, installation technicians on average have 10 years' installation experience. This highly skilled team has successfully installed thousands of indoor playgrounds in many countries all over the world. Cheer amusement has a strict standard to follow during installation process to ensure that the playground durable and safely, with low maintenance.

Cheer Amusement can also provide equipment, resources and assistance worldwide which allow you to work with local installation crews to ensure that your indoor playground project is completed on time and on budget. This can make the installation more convenient in our customer's country.

Customer service

Cheer Amusement has experts and technical representatives to efficiently respond to customers' problems which they met and provide customers technical supports in time.

Our technical representatives can provide your first-rate customer service and professional technical supports to solve the problems you've met. Once you meet problems about indoor playground, just inform us and we will solve your problems without delay.